

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VIII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, December 21, 1900.

Number 42.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

The local Women of Woodcraft brought their membership contest to a close last Friday night, Mrs. Arnold's team defeating Mrs. Hawkins' by a good margin. The contest added 42 new members to the Circle. The losing sides in the Circle and Camp will now combine their energies, talents and loose change and treat the winners to a banquet and entertainment New Year's eve, December 31. Owing to the large membership, the expense will be rather heavy and the seating capacity of the hall taxed to practically its limit. For this reason it will be necessary to make the event strictly a membership affair—that is, open only to members and those who have recently made application for membership.

County Clerk Lutz issued a marriage license on the 15th inst. to Mr. G. N. Pulse of Pedee and Miss Maggie Barclay of Tidewater. The very day the paper was issued her porcine highness came home. On a recent visit to Toledo Gust inserted an advertisement in THE LEADER setting forth the fact that he was offering for sale a cream separator and several fine milch cows. When he reached home he found the separator had been sold before the paper containing the ad was circulated, and the cows would have been sold, too, if the would-be purchasers had been willing to pay his price. The cows are still for sale, but they are good ones, and Mr. Forssell wants what they are worth. His address is Pioneer, Or.
